Dear Grandparents,

Proverbs 16 says, "Grandchildren are the crowning glory of the aged..." I believe it is our purpose to pass our faith on to our grandchildren (Psalm 71), and there is no better way to love them than to cover them in prayer. Please use these prayers and verses to lift your grandchildren up to the Lord.

Dear Heavenly Father...

Thank you for my precious grandchildren. I pray they will trust in you with all their hearts. Our hearts are so deceptive. Help them seek you in everything they do. I know you will show them the path to take. (Proverbs 3:5-6)

This world can be cruel and seem awfully dark. Our Grandchildren will face hard days. I pray they know and study your word. May there be those around them who will teach them that your word lights our way. Your word is a lamp to help us walk in this life. Thank you for giving us the Bible. (Psalm 119:105)

Life is full of choices. The greatest choice we make is who we will serve. I pray, Father, that my grandchildren will choose You. There is no one like You. Help me display to them that in our family, we will serve the Lord. (Joshua 24:14-15)

You know I love my grandchildren so much. But I pray, Father, that they know how much You love them. I know they will have hardships in this life, but You tell us nothing can separate us from your love. Help them understand this is the best love of all. (Romans 8:38-39)

We sometimes have trouble trying to decide between our wants and our needs. I know this is especially hard for children. I pray my grandchildren will seek you first, above all other things. You teach us not to worry and you promise that in putting you first and living righteously, you will give us all we need. (Matthew 6:33)

My grandchildren all have unique talents and gifts. What a joy to watch them grow up. They will have many decisions to make as they decide what they will become and what vocation they will follow. I pray today, Father, that whatever they choose to do that they will do it as a representative of You! (Colossians 3:17)

We are so blessed with material things. It can be overwhelming. I pray my grandchildren will know what contentment means. May they know that with you and your strength they can survive with much and with little. (Philippians 4:11-13)

Thank you, Father, for giving your son so that we might be your sons and daughters. I pray my grandchildren will call you Father and follow you. Help them understand what a mighty love you have for us. You gave us your only son so that we might be saved. (John 3:16)

You are our shepherd, and you know us. You lead us. Help my grandchildren understand this. We are safe when we listen to your voice. You care for each one of them. When one goes astray, you leave the 99 to look for the one. What a good shepherd you are. (John 10:1-16)

May my grandchildren know the two greatest commandments. Help them to put you above all else. Help them to love you with all their heart, soul, mind, and strength. Then, Father, help them to love themselves so that they can love others like you do! (Mark 12:30-31)
